Bordeaux in a good vintage, if not its finesse. The national varieties of red wine are Gamza, the lively Kadarka, Pamid, which gives pale gulping wine; Mavrud, which gives the opposite - the country's national pride; and Melnik, from that town in the far southwest. Red Misket and Muscat Ottonel are popular, but succeeds with Chardonnay, Reasling, Gewurztraminer and Aligote- a variety of finest wine selection, the true flavour of Bulgaria!
